

What did they do?

In 2022 Maria Cook (Chair of Autism Support Crawley) was informed that there was sexual abuse of an autistic person.

Instead of reporting to the authorities, as she should have done under the protection of vulnerable people she contacted the autistic person's employer, breaching confidentiality and ethics.

AutismSupportCrawley failed in it's duty under safeguarding.

In the aftermath of the COVID pandemic, messages from the autism support Crawley board were leaked where autistic people were called names, and ridiculed by staff.

In 2023 the charity received £3,476 in donations from the public, but paid out over £4000 in 'wages', despite advertising that they are a "voluntary" lead charity!

So what have we done?

We have bought '.org' and '.com' domains to disrupt their online presence

We have published our findings online. Go to: AutismSupportCrawley.org

We are protesting at their AGM Or search "autism support Crawley truth"

What did they do?

In 2022 Maria Cook (Chair of Autism Support Crawley) was informed that there was sexual abuse of an autistic person.

Instead of reporting to the authorities, as she should have done under the protection of vulnerable people she contacted the autistic person's employer, breaching confidentiality and ethics.

AutismSupportCrawley failed in it's duty under safeguarding.

In the aftermath of the COVID pandemic, messages from the autism support Crawley board were leaked where autistic people were called names, and ridiculed by staff.

In 2023 the charity received £3,476 in donations from the public, but paid out over £4000 in 'wages', despite advertising that they are a "voluntary" lead charity!

So what have we done?

We have bought '.org' and '.com' domains to disrupt their online presence

We have published our findings online. Go to: AutismSupportCrawley.org

We are protesting at their AGM Or search "autism support Crawley truth"

What did they do?

In 2022 Maria Cook (Chair of Autism Support Crawley) was informed that there was sexual abuse of an autistic person.

Instead of reporting to the authorities, as she should have done under the protection of vulnerable people she contacted the autistic person's employer, breaching confidentiality and ethics.

AutismSupportCrawley failed in it's duty under safeguarding.

In the aftermath of the COVID pandemic, messages from the autism support Crawley board were leaked where autistic people were called names, and ridiculed by staff.

In 2023 the charity received £3,476 in donations from the public, but paid out over £4000 in 'wages', despite advertising that they are a "voluntary" lead charity!

So what have we done?

We have bought '.org' and '.com' domains to disrupt their online presence

We have published our findings online. Go to: AutismSupportCrawley.org

We are protesting at their AGM Or search "autism support Crawley truth"